

LET FAITH ANSWER

2 Corinthians 4:13 ...we have the same spirit of faith, according to what is written, "I believed and therefore I spoke," we also believe and therefore speak.

When fear comes knocking at the door, let faith answer. The faith of God is inherent in His word. It can move mountains and overcome the world. We know of ourselves we do not have this kind of power but wonder of wonders, God has imparted to each of us a measure of the God-kind of faith.

Every time we recall God's promises and make them our bold confession, we exercise our faith. It grows stronger and stronger with use, just as our muscles develop and grow stronger by use and weight bearing activities.

We do not need to consider our natural weaknesses or seeming inadequacies but only consider the might and the power of the Holy Spirit who dwells within us. As we speak His word into the situations that challenge us we actually release His power into them. It's not about us, it's about Him. Our enemy is His enemy and God's word shows that all our enemies are subject to His rule and authority.

As the Centurion recognised Jesus' authority over sickness and disease and compared it to the authority he himself exercised over the soldiers under him, so God has given us authority in the name of Jesus to speak to and subdue our enemies. We speak not of or from ourselves but we speak the words of God Himself. Words that are filled with power and authority. What an honour is ours!

Store up God's word in your heart so that when fear comes knocking, as come it will, without hesitancy you can take your stand and declare, "This what God says in His word. I resist you spirit of fear, in the name of Jesus, be gone from me!" He will flee from you because he recognises he is not just dealing with you but the One who has eternally defeated him!

You are enlisted in My army. A warrior, called to fight the fight of faith. Where you go in My name the darkness will flee before you. Lift your banner of truth high and the enemy will be slain. Giants in the land will fall before you and righteousness and truth will prevail. Those things of the enemy that are high and lofty will bow before Me. They will be brought low. This is the day that I will do these things as you go forth clothed in My righteousness, in My authority and the radiance of My glory. You will dance before Me and shout the victory as the works of the enemy tumble and fall. You will triumph in Me.
